

City as Cosmos: Teotihuacan Symposium

9:30 am | May 4-5, 2018 | Bing Theater

This 2 day international symposium will bring together esteemed researchers from Mexico, the United States, Europe, and Japan who will present new research in the archaeology, art history, and conservation of the ancient city of Teotihuacan, Mexico. Organized in conjunction with *City and Cosmos: The Arts of Teotihuacan, the symposium will be an enriching complement to the exhibition and an extraordinary opportunity for attendees to deepen their knowledge of and appreciation for the materials on view in the exhibition.

Speakers

- David Carballo, Anthropology, Boston University
- William Fash, Anthropology, and Barbara Fash, Peabody Museum, Harvard U.
- Julie Gazzola, Dirección de Estudios Arqueológicos, INAH
- Sergio Gómez Chávez, Proyecto Tlalocan, Zona Arqueológica de Teotihuacan, INAH
- Laura Filloy Nadal, Museo Nacional de Antropología, INAH
- Leonardo López Luján and Michelle De Anda Rogel, Proyecto Templo Mayor, INAH
- Diana Magaloni Kerpel, Art of the Ancient Americas, LACMA
- Linda Manzanilla Naim, Instituto de Investigaciones Antropológicas, UNAM
- Jesper Nielsen and Christophe Helmke, University of Copenhagen
- Megan E. O'Neil, Art of the Ancient Americas, LACMA
- Matthew H. Robb, UCLA Fowler Museum
- Nawa Sugiyama, Anthropology, George Mason University
- Saburo Sugiyama, Arizona State University and Aichi Prefectural University ● Karl Taube, Department of Anthropology, University of California

Support for this program is provided by The Andrew W. Mellon Foundation and The Arvey Foundation. Additional support was provided by AMEXCID, and the Consulate General of Mexico in Los Angeles.

