

Opening Celebration:

Order and Disorder: Alighiero Boetti by Afghan Women

Program 6 focuses on an unusual collaboration between Afghan women embroiderers and the Italian artist Boetti. For this exhibition Afghan women embroidered 29 monumental pieces based on his templates, including colorful grids of letters that spell out phrases, wall-sized world maps, and panels featuring myriad interlocking shapes of miscellaneous objects. Documentary photographs by Randi Steinberger of these Afghan embroiderers accompany this exhibit.

EAC members are especially invited to this opening, with guest curators speaking between 5-6 pm and an opening party with light refreshments and music by DJ Offune, spinning sounds from Afghanistan, Pakistan, Italy, and more.

RSVP (by Feb. 16th) fowlerRSVP@arts.ucla.edu or call (310) 206-7001.

To join the Fowler Museum as a new member, the first 20 EAC members will receive a $10 reduction in their Fowler membership fee. Go to <http://fowler.ucla.edu/membership> and state you are an EAC member when you sign up. See you there on February 25, 2012!
