

EAC Program 5 & 6

Program 5

Sunday, February 17, 2008 • 3-5 pm

Home of Leon & Fern Wallace
301 S. Rossmore Avenue • LA 90020

The Wallaces have a magnificently diverse collection of Indonesian, African and pre-Columbian artifacts, traditional Ikebana baskets as well as contemporary Japanese bamboo sculptures. Paintings by Sam Francis, Frank Stella, and Gorky hang amidst this art-laden house that represents 35 years of passionate collecting by the Wallaces.

Limited space (25 persons only)
RSVP • Noon • February 16, 2008 • (310) 454-7851

Program 6

Sunday, March 2, 2008 • 3-5 pm

Christopher B. Donnan • “Moche Tombs at Dos Cabezas”
Fowler Museum at UCLA

Dr. Donnan details the excavation of five extraordinary Moche tombs at Dos Cabezas (about 300 miles north of Lima), describing his team’s discovery of stunning ceramics and metalworks that reveals aspects of Moche funerary practice and the sophistication, both artistic and technical, of this ancient civilization. Lecture at Lenart Auditorium and book signing/reception in the Fowler Courtyard.

Co-sponsored by the Cotsen Institute of Archaeology, the Fowler Museum, and the EAC

