

EAC Programs at SF Tribal & Textile Art Show Feb. 7-10, 2019

EAC travels to San Francisco to attend the Fort Mason show where members have the unique opportunity to attend 3 corollary events designed especially for them:

1. Feb. 7th, 1 pm. Private tour of Mike Glad's stellar AAOA collection along with vintage paraphernalia and a prized animated cell offering. Housed in a 5000 sq.ft. mansion in Modesto, each room represents a specific geographic region: Africa, Papua New Guinea, Indonesia, Japan, etc. The display of Mike's vast collection is as artful as the pieces themselves. Lunch will be served at 1 pm and the Glad-led tour will follow. The home is 1.5 hours from the Bay Area and 5 hours north of LA on 5 & 99.
2. Feb. 9th, 10:30 am. One of the largest private collection of Papua New Guinea and Himalayan art in the country, the Sam and Sharon Singer collection has drawn museum officials as well as collectors and art aficionados from around the world. The Singers will host a brunch at their Berkeley home and share their expertise and experience in building this world class collection.
3. February 8th at 7:30 pm, EAC's signature Chinese New Year banquet will take place in SF. A sumptuous 10 course dinner in a private VIP room along with wine, tax & tip for $70 will inaugurate the Year of the Boar. Only 20 seats available so Hurry Hurry.

RSVP ASAP: list # (1, 2, or 3 or all) to feelie@ucla.edu; send dinner check written to Feelie Lee • 510 E. Rustic Rd., Santa Monica, CA 90402 • asap to dine in style!
