

SAVE THE DATE

The Beaded Home of the Friedbergs • Woodland Hills

January 22, 2022 • 11 am

Fired by her passion for beads, Diana Friedberg traveled the world filming the use of beads and beadwork of cultures in every corner of the globe, resulting in her groundbreaking five-part documentary series entitled World on a String. Widely acknowledged and loved, it garnered 31 international awards. A companion photographic book soon followed the film's success. A prolific author other books included Reflections (2016) and Mystical Connections (2021). In 2020 she completed another major documentary on the life of composer Max Steiner and his contribution to the art of film scoring.

To reserve for this home and garden tour, limited to 35 current members, please RSVP HERE

A light lunch will be served in the garden. All Covid protocols will be followed.

For an overview of the world of beads, view the film, The Eternal Bead, HERE